

Shared Beginnings at Reid

Stay in tune with what's happening with you and your baby throughout your pregnancy!

Learn. Prepare. Support.

Shared Beginnings at Reid is a new program offered free to expectant mothers, fathers and coaches who plan to deliver at Reid. Program features include:

- Pre-natal classes
- Newsletters with updates between classes
- Lactation services
- Pregnancy massage
- Suite-like rooms with flat screen TV and in-room refrigerator
- Professional photography by Red Barn Photography
- Post-natal support
  - Instruction in infant massage
  - Infant development class
- Celebration luncheon the month after delivery completes the experience

Participants are invited to attend a series of five classes beginning at 9-12 weeks of pregnancy. Classes are led by staff from the Mother-Baby Care Center and shared with mothers who are expecting the same month.

For questions, to register or for a list of physicians who deliver at Reid, call the Mother-Baby Care Center.
